The PRCDC celebrates 30 years of service to businesses and communities!

Prescott-Russell, June 17, 2016: In order to support the efforts of the Prescott-Russell Community Development Corporation (PRCDC), an evening of recognition took place to celebrate its thirtieth anniversary at the Chute à Blondeau community hall.

The 5 to 7 event, invited business people of the region to come celebrate the accomplishment of 30 years of success of the PRCDC. Everything went very well in a warm atmosphere where everyone had the opportunity to expand their networks of contacts and to taste local food products of the region. In addition, two businesses of the region having received services from the PRCDC were amongst the invitees to present their businesses in the form of video and testimony.

Many guests were present to hear the speeches of Mr. John Candie, Executive Director, and Mr. Sylvain Charlebois, Chairperson of the Board of Directors that has completed his speech in a very positive way "The Prescott-Russell Community Development Corporation is proud to be a business solution for small businesses in the Prescott-Russell region." A special guest also took part in the event, Mr. Francis Drouin, Member of Parliament for Glengarry-Prescott-Russell, who seemed delighted with the evening and presented certificates of 25 years to Mr. Gilles Lahaie, 20 years to Ms. Estelle Patenaude and 20 years to Mr. Sylvain Charlebois for their years of service as a volunteers within the board of directors of the PRCDC.

Several events are coming to commemorate the thirty years of foundation of the PRCDC. So follow us on Facebook and take part in our 30th anniversary events.
